

Val Gardena, Italy – Feb 23-Mar 5 – $ 2,995 per person

Located in Alta Badia, a high alpine valley in northern Italy, Val Gardena offers 175 km of slopes with 81 lifts. Our trip package provides nearly ten times more terrain with the Dolomiti Superski pass that connects 12 ski areas. In just one day you can ride some 40 kilometres (24 mi) of runs without ever having to take your skis off and without ever riding the same slope twice. With such vast terrain and over 450 lifts, our Val Gardena guide will lead each day of skiing. With extensive Dolomiti experience, Alberto can have you focus on the views and thrills, or you can find your own skiing destinations.

And for those who want to get the full experience, explore the Sella Ronda and the many villages nestled there. Non-skiers are not left out: hiking, snow-shoeing, cross-country skiing, dog sledding, tobogganing, and skating are available.

Two days in Venice are added on this trip. You can go on a gondola ride under the Rialto bridge to Piazza San Marco and its Basilica or simply watch the time go by, sitting at a cafe by the water.
